"Shenandoah," the great war play, will be seen at the Hyperion to-night and to-morrow night. Every soldier and citizen should be on hand to see this wonderful play presented in all its accuracy by the competent company under the direction of Gustave Frohman. General Sheridan had been summon-d to Washington for a conference and left the army safely in camp. General Early finding the Confederate army without provisions or ammunition made preparations for a secret midnight attack on Sheridan's forces. The Confederates stole quietly into the camp at ledar Creek and so complete was the urprise that many of the Federal troops were killed as they lay sleeping in their tents. Consternation reigned supreme and Sheridan was twenty miles away at Winchester. Mounting his famous black charger he hurriedly rode toward the scene of action and encountered his men in full retreat. As he rode into the midst of them he exclaimed, "Turn the other way, boys, we'll lick 'em yet." And they did. This great scene forms one of the features of "Shenandoah," Bronson's Howard's great war play which is to be seen in this city. Each scene will be presented in all its accuracy, and every military man will surely be in attendance, Sale of seats now open. Prices, $1, 75 cents.

Roland Reed and his admirable company will present the laughable comedy; "Lend Me Your Wife," next Tues day evening. This is one of the cleverest plays that the popular actor has ever had, and it enables him to appear to splendid advantage in a quaint role Captain Abner Tarbox, an old mariner who manages to get into the wildest complications ever laughed at. Sale of seats opens Saturday. Prices, $1, 75

Charles Frohman's company are an nounced to appear at the Hyperion theater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week in the latest metro politan success, "The Masqueraders." The presenting company is one of the largest and strongest this well known manager has on the road. FIRST TU CUM

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The first production in this city of The Land of the Living" was certainly auspicious, for the Grand Opera house was well filled and the audience en thusiastic over the production. The play was written by Frank Harvey, whose former successes have been "The World Against Her" and "The Wages of Sin," both of which have had very successful runs.

The play tells the story of "truth rushed to earth shall rise again. Reuben Tredgold has ruined his partner. Gerold Arkright. The latter goes to Africa to recover his fortunes. After many vicissitudes he finds a number of diamonds worth an immense fortune. He is robbed by his former partner, who finds him fever stricken and who steals the diamonds. Tredgold's no acid to stain delicate goods. It is wife, who is deserted, nurses Arkright back to strength and together they start in search of Tredgold and Arkright's family. They arrive in London and find Tredgold, who attempts to kill them both in an explosion. This scene is wonderfully realistic. Arkright and Tredgold's wife appear in time to prevent the marriage of Tredgold to Arkright's wife and to cause the arres of the villain. The acting of Will S. Harkins as Arkright, Harry Webster as Fred Larkins, Alma Strong as Arkright's wife, Lola Morrisse as Arkright's sister and Helen Corlette as Tredgold's wife were worthy of special praise. The play will be repeated this

"Slaves of Gold" will be presented at the Grand Opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week. There will be the usual matinees Tuesday and Wednesday. The fourth act shows the interior of a coal mine in full operation. In this act an earthquake and fire effect is introduced, followed by a terrific explosion, showing the bursting of the water tanks in which the water is shown rising in full view of the audience. This scene is conceded to be the most novel and startling ever utilized for stage purposes. The company is one of unusual length and is headed by Elmer Grandin, the powerful character actor.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATER. Nilsson's grand aerial ballet loses one of its attractiveness as the week passes, and is indeed more popular with every presentation and every evening the house is crowded to the doors with delighted spectators. The afternoon business is likewise very large. This is the banner week at this popular theater. The wonderfully brilliant spectac ular effects accompanying the ballet are indeed immensely effective, and the beautiful dancing ladies, the prettiest that Mr. Nilsson could find in Paris, delight all. The specialty bill given is also full of delightful acts, and altogether a visit to the Wonderland this week is very pleasant. At the after-noon performances ladies are admit-

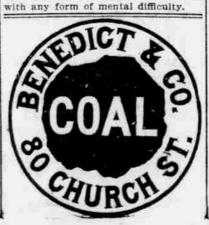

Mysteriously Disappeared. Beverly, Mass., Oct. 24.-Mrs. Sarah Smith, fifty-six years old, formerly resident of this city, but now of Mal-den, has disappeared. WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN. It is the Lake Shore Now-Wonderfully Fast Time.

Buffalo, Oct. 24.-The world's record for railroad speed over a great distance was broken to-day by a special train on the Michigan Southern railway, which ran from One Hundredth street Chicago, to Buffalo Creek, Buffalo, distance of 510.1 miles in 481 minutes, and made an average speed of 62.60 miles an hour. This time includes stops, Exclusive of stops the run was made in 470 minutes 10 seconds, an average speed of 64.98 miles an hour. This beats the New York Central record of 63.61 miles an hour, including stops, and 64.26 miles an hour exclusive of delay. A Bad Railroad Wreck.

Altoona, Oct. 24.-At 2:15 o'clock this morning a car broke down in an eastbound freight train at Trimmer's Rock. near Bailey's, on the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad. This caused the wreck of two or three cars which were thrown over on the north track, mmediately in front of the second Southwestern express.

Its engine struck the wreck and was thrown over into the canal, causing the instant death of Engineer Daniel Wolfkil and Fireman J. W. Haines, both of whom lived in Harrisburg. The first four mail cars were also wrecked and took fire. Eight mail clerks were hurt, none of them seriously, except C. A. Chamberlain of Harrisburg, who had his left arm broken.

But his mamma put it back upon the floor
With Le Page's Glue cemented;
Now he's perfectly contented. he's periectly contented, thinks it's even better than before.

"It Sticks" said a cabinet-maker who was asked why Le Page's Glue is the best. Another thing, it is all ready to put on without any heating. It is SLOW drying-gives time to adjust broken edges with care. It contains as flexible as leather, firm as a rock, light as paper, almost as clear as glass. So it suits ALL MATERIALS.
